Operator

911. What's the address of the emergency?

Caller

Yeah, there's, a car was stolen, my, by my, uh, my neighbor's car was stolen with a bunch of kids with guns.

Operator

What's the address?

Caller

Well, it's uh, 13.82 it's, uh, well, they just went down the alley.

Operator

What is the address?

Caller

The car stolen - well, the address is 13.82.

Operator

13.82?

Caller

Yep. And they, they went south of the alley between 13.82 and they're in a white Ford Explorer.

Operator

Was your neighbor robbed?

Caller

Yeah.

Operator

Okay.

Caller

And they took her, they stole her car and beat her with the gun.

Operator

Okay. Does she need an ambulance?

What?

Operator

Does she need an ambulance?

Caller

Do you need an ambulance?

Participant

No.

Caller

No.

Operator

What color and kind of vehicle was it again? It was a white?

Caller

It's a white Ford Explorer. They just went, uh, up 30, 30, uh, towards, uh, towards Fremont.

Operator

Okay.

Caller

They were armed.

Operator

I, I already have the call entered. Did they arrive in another vehicle?

Caller

No, they were walking down the street and they came up the alley.

Operator

Okay. How many of them were there?

Caller

Four. Four that I saw.

Operator

Okay.

Uh, one, the guy who had a gun had no shirt on. They're probably about for about, uh, from 5'6-5'9 in height, all black males.

Operator

Okay. I already have the call entered. We're getting someone out there. Okay. Are you with your neighbor now?

Caller

Yes.

Operator

Okay. I'm gonna keep you guys on the phone. I need to get you guys to the auto desk so they can start to register it as stolen and we're gonna find the license plate for the vehicle. What was your name, sir?

Caller

13.82

Operator

Okay. <sup>13.82</sup> they are on the way but stay on the line so we can get the auto desk with us.

Caller

Okay.
